Catholic Charities and Fort Worth Star Telegram need your help!

In 2014 alone, Catholic Charities Fort Worth (CCFW) assisted over 19,600 children. This could not have been possible without our volunteers who clocked in 2,269 volunteer hours. Currently, we are gearing up for another year of providing local children in need with shoes and clothing. In order to continue the success, we need your help! CCFW, in partnership with the Fort Worth Star Telegram, is in need of volunteer assistance with our Goodfellow program in order to provide 20,000 children with opportunities for success.

Volunteers are a vital piece to the work of our program and we have various opportunities to serve this upcoming season. Interested in learning more? Our volunteer orientations will be held this upcoming month on the following dates:

Fort Worth (Catholic Charities main campus):

Wednesday, September 23, 10:00-11:30 am

Thursday, September 24, 1:00-2:30 pm

Wednesday, September 30, 10:00-11:30 am

Arlington (St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church):

Monday, September 21, 10:00- 11:30 am

Tuesday, September 29, 1:00-2:30 pm

Please call (682)251-1024 or email goodfellows@ccdofw.org for more information and registration for orientations.

About Catholic Charities Fort Worth: Founded in 1910, Catholic Charities Fort Worth (CCFW) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization with a zealous goal to end poverty in our 28 county diocese. By meeting the needs of children, families, elderly, refugees, and immigrants regardless of creed, ethnicity, or culture, we are able to serve and give hope to over 100,000 individuals and families in need each year. More than 90 cents out of every dollar donated goes directly to provide services through over 40 innovative programs, empowering clients to become self-sufficient.
